Consent for Publication of Personally Identifiable Information

As part of its advocacy efforts on behalf of people with developmental disabilities, the Montgomery County Board of Developmental Disabilities Services (MCBDDS) seeks to provide information to the public through various programs and activities, events, facilities, staff, and the individuals and families it serves.

Before personally identifiable information is shared, individuals (or their legal guardians) must consent (agree) to the release of said information, which may include – but is not limited to – their name, image or likeness, voice, work, personal or background information, and achievements.

By providing consent, signers agree to release MCBDDS from any liability associated with violation of privacy, confidentiality, personal or property rights they have in connection with such materials. Consent also affirms that individuals or their guardians a) waive any right to approve said materials, and b) understand that their participation is voluntary, and will not lead to financial compensation of any type.

The Montgomery County Board of Developmental Disabilities Services has my permission to use my/my child or ward’s name, image or likeness, voice, work, personal or background information and achievements for advocacy, community awareness, education, news or promotional purposes. I understand that publication may encompass print and electronic vehicles including videos; websites; emails, newsletters, brochures and reports; flyers, presentations, displays, posters and signage; the Board’s social media channels; advertising (via newspapers, radio, TV, social media, and billboards); as well as sharing with news media outlets and personnel or Montgomery County administration. I also understand that this request includes use of photographs, videos and audio recordings, and could include other forms of media not named here.

In granting this consent, I release and hold harmless the Montgomery County Board of Developmental Disabilities Services, its agents and successors, from liability or harm that may result from the publication of such materials.

I understand that this authorization may be revoked or cancelled at any time (except to the extent that action has been taken in reliance on it) by notifying, in writing, the MCBDDS Communications Department at 8114 N. Main St., Dayton, OH 45415 or via e-mail at communityrelations@mcbdd.org.

Explanation of Consent for Publication/ Permission to Publish Form

Board of Developmental Disabilities Services

- The Montgomery County Board of Developmental Disabilities can only publish my name, pictures and video of me or my work, or information about my background if I tell them it's OK and sign their Consent for Publication form.
- I DO NOT have to sign the Board's Consent for Publication form.
- If I DO sign the form, it means I am telling the Board it is OK to share my name, pictures and video of me or my work, or information about my background for advocacy, community awareness, education, news or promotional purposes to help people understand the Board's services and its work, or to help people better understand people with disabilities. This information may be shared with news media outlets and personnel or Montgomery County administration, who may also share it when communicating about Board services.
- If I sign the form, I'm only giving them the OK to share my name, pictures or video of me or my work, or information about my background for a period of one year.
- My picture or information could be used or shared:
 - On Board websites, on blogs or online news sites
 - In an emailed publication like a newspaper, newsletter or annual report
 - On social media sites like Facebook, X, Instagram, LinkedIn and YouTube or others
 - In visual presentations, like PowerPoints, Prezis, displays, posters or signage
 - In printed items, like brochures, reports, flyers and other items
 - In videos shown at meetings, presentations, or posted to the Board's social media channels or website
 - On TV, radio or print news
 - In advertising, including newspapers, TV, radio, social media and billboards
 - In ways not listed here
- If I give my OK, I understand that I will not be paid.
- If I give my OK, I understand that I will not be allowed to approve materials before or after they are published.
- If I change my mind and don't want the Board to use my picture or information anymore, I need to tell a member of the Board's staff in writing. I can do this, or my guardian can tell them for me. My guardian or I will need to send an e-mail to the Board at communityrelations@mcbdds.org or send a letter in the mail to MCBDDS Communications Team, MCBDDS, 8114 N. Main St., Dayton, OH, 45415, and explain that I no longer want my information to be used or shared.
- If I have questions about this form or how my information is being used, I should contact the MCBDDS Communications Department staff at 937-732-3706 or or 937-776-0866 or by emailing them at communityrelations@mcbdds.org.
