

Opioids

If you or someone you know becomes addicted to opioids, there is treatment available. Methadone, Buprenorphine, and Naltrexone are medications that are FDA-approved to treat opioid use disorder.

For more information about opioid treatment, visit:

<https://www.drugabuse.gov/publications/research-reports/medications-to-treat-opioid-addiction/efficacy-medications-opioid-use-disorder>.¹

To find treatment providers in Montgomery County, Ohio, visit:

https://www.mcadamhs.org/treatment_support/opioid_treatment_programs.php

References

¹ Tips for Teens: <https://store.samhsa.gov/sites/default/files/d7/priv/pep19-08.pdf>

² Teaching Pamphlet: <https://www.slideshare.net/ShannonHart12/teaching-pamphlet-opioids>

³ DEA drug fact sheet: <https://www.dea.gov/sites/default/files/2020-06/Methamphetamine-2020.pdf>

⁴ Fentanyl info: https://odh.ohio.gov/wps/wcm/connect/gov/8e8810cb-979d-4e30-9e1a-5ab786bd24a2/Fentanyl_Background.pdf?MOD=AJPERES

To learn more about opioids, contact:
Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA)
1-877-SAMHSA-7 (1-877-726-4727)
(English and Español)
TTY 1-800-487-4889
www.samhsa.gov
store.samhsa.gov